Barn Notes

Blast from the Past Elkhorn – 10 years ago

The first race of the Sunday 2001 program was won by LIL MISS HILKRIS, who was trained by Ed Casagranda and driven by his friend Roy Kline. She won both heats that day in 2:06.3 and 2:05.

These were the last two drives that Roy sat in the sulky, and he made them winning ones! Two years later after winning almost 300 races and over $300,000, Roy was inducted into the Wisconsin Harness Racing Hall of Fame for his racing accomplishments and devotion to Wisconsin racing. Roy left us all in 2006, but to this day everyone has a favorite Roy Kline memory.

What's yours?

Horses vs. Drivers

There are 25 horses entered in today's races. Their combined earnings are over $690,000!

On the flip side, there are 12 drivers programed today. Their combined earnings are over $4.1 MILLION-WHOA!

Did You Know?

Some of the top drivers in the State of Wisconsin are programed to drive today?

Four of today's drivers have a combined total of 14 driving titles between them? Bet you can't name the 4 drivers and how many each has!
