El Presidential Message

First of all, I would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone, their families and their noble steeds the most joyous holiday season.

It's been a long and trying year for everyone with inflating gas prices, rainouts, and busy schedules. As you read this, I'm sure you're wondering why this is the only newsletter that you have received in 2008. I apologize that the newsletter has been absent this year, but unfortunately, Jessica had to resign as editor of the Wisconsin Harness News. Jess has done a phenomenal job over the past few years, but due to her new employment with the Pete Foley Stable and most recently her position at the USTA, she was forced to give up the newsletter. A BIG thank you goes out to Jess for her years of service.

We are very fortunate that board member Sadie Gunnink stepped up to the plate and took over the reins as Editor. This is her first issue, and I'm sure you will find it enjoyable and informative. Going forward, we will be having a quarterly newsletter sent out and will take the necessary steps to make sure we get this done as it's a very important part of the WHHA and to its members.

Throughout this issue you will find all kinds of information about the upcoming annual meeting and banquet. As committee chair, I am very excited about the upcoming changes. They are noted later in this issue.

I hope everyone can make it out to the annual meeting in January. Let's make it the biggest and best ever!

Happy Holidays,

Gabe Wand
President, WHHA

This Year At the Annual Meeting...

Board of Director Elections

We will have board of director elections during the WHHA Business meeting in the afternoon. We will be voting on 3 Directors. Susan Schroeder & Jeanne Marquis have expressed interest in another term on our board of directors. Basil Remley has decided not to seek re-election and we give him a big thank you for the time that he has put on the board of directors.

This year we will be trying something new. The Nomination Committee will not be bringing a slate of 3 candidates as a recommendation to the membership. All nominations will be taken from the floor.

Please be sure that if you would like to nominate someone that you speak to them prior to the annual meeting to be sure that they are interested. All candidates must be present at the annual meeting in order to run.

If you have an interest or questions about running for our board of directors, please contact Gabe Wand or Rick Davis for further information.

Vendor Room

This year we will have a new addition to the festivities. We have invited a couple different vendors ranging from equipment dealers to nutritionists to veterinary care to join us and display their wares in their very own "Vendor Room".

At press time, we confirmed that Walsh, Nutrena Feed, Equishine, Racers Placers and Diane Kleinsteinber (Dan Patch Display) will be joining us. This will be a good opportunity for vendors to share their information with our members.

If anyone has any ideas for any other vendors they would like to see at the exhibit, please let Gabe know and he will make contact with them.

Auction

The annual live and silent auctions are our biggest fundraisers of the year – and this year, it will no doubt be the same.

The Fund Raising committee is busy out soliciting donations, but we need the membership's help as well. If you're able to bring an item, big or small, for the auction, it is very much appreciated. Every little bit helps!

The proceeds from the auction help fund everything we need to make the upcoming racing season a success. The money raised helps pay for things like advertising, insurance, sound systems, starting gates and purses for the horses.

So remember, bid high, and bid often! It all goes to a great cause!

DASHING DIPLOMAT

P,4, 1:49.1 ($211,737)

INTRODUCES HIS FIRST OFFSPRING DASHING MAJORETTE

Shown at 14 weeks
Filly from C Major by Fighting Major

Dashing Diplomat, fastest son of Tattler's Torpedo, equalled the track record & set the 4 year old horse record at Balmoral Park. He won at Maywood Park in 1:51.4h. He was a consistent racehorse, bringing home a check in 92% of his races.

Dashing Diplomat is out of Final Pix by Incredible Finale. From only 3 foals of racing age, Final Pix is also the dam of Modernmajorgeneral p.1:53.3h, who was ICF Champion Aged Horse on the half mile in 2006.

Dashing Diplomat defeated top pacers in his racing career, including Yankee Cruise, Taser Gun, Live Out Load, Les Nomades, Parklane Powerful, Constant Change, Move Itt, Go Warrior Go and many others.

USTA seeks your input on county fair racing

*Thursday, November 20, 2008
by T.C. Lane, Director of Officials, the U.S. Trotting Assn.*

Columbus, OH --- County fair harness racing is an important part of our history at the USTA. We have been given the opportunity to ensure their survival and promote growth in 2009, in both the number of horsemen involved and the number of fans in the stands.

With the winter months upon us, the USTA would like to know your opinions on county fair racing to better program for next summer. Please take a few minutes to complete our county fair survey by going online to:
http://www.surveymonkey.com/s.aspx?sm=F8JP02hJ9J7SvbhxF1GHog_3d_3d

Please contact TC Lane (tclane@ustrotting.com) or Jessica Schroeder (jessica.schroeder@ustrotting.com) for specific information on county fair racing in your area.

Jackson Harness Raceway closes operations

Thursday, December 04, 2008 - by John Pawlak, the U.S. Trotting Association

Columbus, OH --- MTR Gaming Group, the majority owner and operator of Jackson Harness Raceway, has announced that it will close operations at the Michigan harness track, effective immediately.

In 2005 the West Virginia gaming company purchased a 90 percent stake in the track, which first hosted racing in 1948.

A brief statement from the firm said, "Effective today (December 4) Jackson Trotting Association has ceased operation of racing at Jackson Harness Raceway in Lansing, Mich. Jackson Harness Raceway will not schedule live and simulcast racing in 2009."

The Jackson Citizen-Patriot, in reporting on a potential closure in its Nov. 21, 2008 edition, said the closure would cost 40 full-time and 100 seasonal jobs.

MTR Gaming, which also operates Mountaineer Casino Racetrack and Resort in Chester, W.Va., recently reduced its total workforce by four percent, and removed Friday nights from the Chester track's live Thoroughbred racing schedule.

The newspaper also reported that MTR, which it said lost $1 million at Jackson since it purchased the large stake, had hoped the Michigan Legislature would have taken steps to approve racetrack slot machines in the economically starved state -- which has not happened.

Surpass vs. Bute for Arthritis

March 31, 2008 - by Christy West, TheHorse.com Webmaster, Article #11585

Osteoarthritis medications were a hot topic at the 2007 American Association of Equine Practitioners convention, held Dec. 1-5 in Orlando, Fla., with four presentations on various medications during one half-day session alone.

In particular, David Frisbie, DVM, PhD, Dipl. ACVS, associate professor of veterinary clinical sciences at Colorado State University (CSU), discussed a study comparing clinical efficacy and joint health parameters of Surpass (topical liposomal diclofenac cream) to those of the commonly used oral non-steroidal anti-inflammatory medication phenylbutazone (Bute).

Does Surpass really work to improve joint health, or is it just another way of delivering a painkiller? CSU researchers set out to answer that question.

In 24 horses, carpal (knee) osteoarthritis was induced in one knee, and the horses were split into one control and two treatment groups. One treatment group got 7.2 g of Surpass on the affected joint every 12 hours for five days, while the other received 2 g of Bute orally once a day for five days. Horses were exercised on a high-speed treadmill daily, and lameness, tissue scores, biochemical scores, and biomarker scores were used to evaluate the efficacy of treatment.

Frisbie reported that the Bute- and Surpass-treated limbs got significantly better in terms of lameness scores. The cartilage glycosaminoglycan content in the Surpass-treated limbs was better than with Bute (meaning the cartilage was better hydrated and lubricated). There were also improvements in bone sclerosis (hardening) of the radial carpal bone and total erosion scores in the Surpass-treated joints.

"Both Surpass and Bute had symptom-modifying effects, but Surpass alone had disease-modifying (curing) effects," Frisbie summarized. "Diclofenac liposomal cream (Surpass) applied to a joint with experimental osteoarthritis provides a significantly better outcome than a similar joint treated with systemic phenylbutazone."

New Web Site Sends Rotational Deworming Reminders

November 04, 2008 - by Edited Press Release, TheHorse.com Article #13018

Pfizer Animal Health recently launched two new Web sites that offer education on deworming topics, as well as the convenience of an online reminder system. RotationisKey.com allows horse owners to register for e-mails customized to help them manage the deworming schedules of their horses. The site Equimaxhorse.com offers a wide variety of educational materials on proper deworming and the damage that tapeworms and other parasites can cause in the horse.

Effective deworming is a cornerstone of good horse health management, but decisions on what types of dewormers to use and when to deworm can be challenging for horse owners. Through RotationisKey.com, Pfizer Animal Health allows owners to choose to follow either the Daily Plus daily deworming schedule or the Rotation is Key paste deworming program. By registering with the site, owners will receive appropriate reminder e-mails that will help them to assure that horses get the product they need, when they need it.

"RotationisKey.com is all about making rotation convenient for horse owners," said Kristin Ruff, equine marketing manager at Pfizer Animal Health. "Veterinarians agree that rotating between chemical classes is important for proper deworming, and this site is designed to make those decisions easy."

Pfizer Animal Health's other new site, Equimaxhorse.com, provides a hub for information on the company's Equimax (ivermectin 1.87%/praziquantel 14.03%) Paste dewormer, as well as education on topics centered on parasitism, tapeworm infections and their effects in the horse.
