President's Message

Another racing season is in the books, and 2016 didn't disappoint for excitement! We saw some great finishes, fast miles, and upsets which is what racing is all about. A big thank you to our partners on extra race meets: Elkhorn Trotting Club, Iowa County Horsemen, & Richland County Horsemen. Without these three groups, our 13 race date calendar would have been down to 9 race dates. Obviously first and foremost we need to support the dates that are during each respective county fair. However, the big question is, would we have horses to race at these fairs, if we would only have 9 dates instead of 13? Would people keep horses around with little opportunity to race? I do not know the answer, but it's food for thought. So please take the time to reach out to each of them with a kind thank you for all they are doing to help keep racing going.

Richland County Horsemen

As we talk about horse population, and I wanted to continue to provide some stats:

	2013	2014	2015	2016
Races Carded	86	99	86	83
Horse Entered	394	431	378	369
Average Field Size	4.58	4.35	4.40	4.29

(*Note, places where 2 heats were contested, # horses and # races carded were only counted once. However if horses double entered in separate races, those were counted twice). I welcome any ideas on how to increase the above numbers for the best card possible.

On a personal note, I want to extend a heartfelt thanks to all the support my family & I received from members of this WHHA Family during the passing of my Mom. Climbing into the bike at Viroqua was one of the toughest things I've had to do in my driving career, but all your support helped me through it. I am very honored and proud to be a part of such an amazing extended family. Hugz to all.

Take Care,
Gabe

A special win for

Sunday, July 31, 2016 - by Rich Fisher, USTA Web Newsroom Senior Correspondent

Trenton, NJ --- It's pretty uncommon when a guy can go more than Derby winner. So watching my uncle just pi35 years between driving wins. It's just as uncommon when a horse can go six years between victories. But when they combine to do it all at once, well folks, there may not be a word for how uncommon that is. So let's just say it was pretty darn cool.

On June 18, Neil Nordlof drove Ideals Oath to victory at the Walworth County Fair in Elkhorn, Wis. The 66-year-old Nordlof picked up his last driving win prior to 1980 and 8-year-old Ideals Oath had not raced since she was 2 in 2010.

"After that long, it's pretty rewarding," Nordlof said. "(Coming across the line) I'm thinking it was hard to believe. I thought 'We're here, we did it.' It's just a fair win, but a win is a win. It's satisfying and gratifying. It's very neat."

It sure is. And it gives credence to Nordlof's philosophy on harness racing.

"You can stay hands on as much as you want and that's what allows this sport to be so magnificent," he said. "You can be my age and come back. You got a horse, you take it into Chicago. I've qualified a few. You might be in a qualifier and driving right next to you is a top-flight driver. You can't get that in any other sport."

Nordlof has had a lifelong love affair with the sport, even though there was a 26-year gap in his involvement as a driver and trainer.

Growing up in Rockford, Ill., Nordlof hung around his uncle, who had Standardbreds and judged in fairs.

"That's where my interest in harness racing came," he said. "But I was born horse crazy. The first book I bought in first grade was Black Beauty; the second one I bought in second grade was about a Kentucky quid my interest."

After being stationed in Berlin while in the Army, Nordlof got out in 1971 and bought his first horse. He picked up a few wins as a trainer and two as a driver, all prior to 1980.

In 1986, he stepped away from the business but did own a few broodmares for several years. He also went to the Michigan School of Horseshoeing and picked up his shoeing credentials. The lifelong Rockford resident continued to follow the sport closely, but only from a distance.

"I guess I didn't have the fortitude to stay with it and put it as a priority," said Nordlof, whose reason for getting out was as unselfish as it gets.

When he turned 30, Nordlof decided it was time to devote his life to his wife and three children. He went into real estate before opening his own flooring business. He not only runs the business, but also works hands-on installing wood floors, which he feels has kept him in shape for a return to racing. Nordlof proudly points out that at 5-foot-9 and 159 pounds he is the same height and weight as he was in high school.

In 2010, at age 60 with his family grown and taken care of, Nordlof said, "I decided to treat myself and I went out and bought a horse (named Kennelly)."

Nordlof eventually got back into driving in 2012, and said the apprehension after being away for so long wasn't that great.

"You're a little apprehensive but no more than you would have been had it only been a year's absence," he said. "It's kind of like riding a bike, once that gate starts rolling, all that goes away. All the apprehension is prior, the week before or whenever."

He bought Ideals Oath in 2014, and noted the mare had an interesting background. Ideals Oath had three starts as a 2-year-old and won her second lifetime start in 1:56. She then finished second to Myluvmylife in her Lou Babic elimination, but was scratched from the final for reasons Nordlof does not know and re-tired to become a broodmare.

Nordlof bought her at age 6 when she was in foal with Center Stage Dream, who Nordlof plans on breaking in a month. After Ideals Oath gave birth, Nordlof decided to drive her.

"Just watching her in the pasture, she paces all the time, and she's a beautiful looking horse -- her head, her conformation," he said. "To me, she's got good breeding and the fact she had a mark of (1):56 as a 2-year-old, I thought 'Well she has an attitude. If there's anything wrong, we'll discover that. But until we do we'll race her and train her.'"

In no way did he consider it a gamble.

"I thought it'd be a lot easier than starting with a yearling," Nordlof said. "She's been broken and she's raced. The irony is, after six years, I put a harness on her and she acted like she had that thing on the day before. I went out, line drove her for about 10 minutes, she acted perfect. I put the cart on her, she jogged and she's been perfect ever since. Even with that big of an absence she still came right back to it."

The same can be said for Nordlof, who is contemplating retiring in December with his wife, meaning he can devote more time to the horses.

"I think I surprised my wife by coming back, but I think in the back of my mind I always thought I'd go back in it," he said, adding with a laugh, "I was hoping I'd have the wherewithal not to, but that probably wasn't going to be a very strong deterrent."

Nordlof is unsure of his driving future, saying he will take things as they come.

Ernest J. Miller Jr.

1951-2016

Ernest J. Miller Jr.
passed away on Saturday, Aug. 6,

2016, at the age of 65. He was born on May 3, 1951, to Ernest and Bernita (Eustice) Miller.

Ernie graduated from Verona High School in 1969 and attended Madison Area Technical College. As a joint venture with Joe, he founded the social group DIOB "Danger Is Our Business." He worked at Premier Co-op for a number of years and then for a short time at Burkart-Heisdorf Insurance. Ernie felt honored and forever grateful to be a two-time kidney transplant recipient. He was extremely appreciative of his sisters for their organ donations and to everyone who supported him throughout his health issues allowing him to enjoy a longer, high-quality life. In retirement, he continued to pursue his passion for training and racing harness horses.

Ernie and Heidi Garfoot dated for many years and married on Oct. 26, 2001, in San Diego, Calif. Ernie's motto in life was "All my stories may not be true, but they were all good stories." Ernie always managed to light up a room with his witty personality, the sparkle in his eye, and a smile on his face. He never once missed an opportunity to tell a great story. Ernie's lifelong passion was harness racing, and he will be remembered for his positive attitude, great sense of humor, and generosity.

Survivors include his wife, Heidi; a daughter, Amanda M. Lee; his siblings, Cheri Timpel, Sandi (Tom) Robertson, Peg (Bob) Koch, Barb (Bob) McGinnis, Joanne (Tom) Eveland, Bruce (Karen) Miller, and Donna (Ray) Hanna; nieces, nephews, in-laws, other relatives, and all friends whom he considered part of his family.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother-in-law, Ken Timpel.

The Ellestad Camacho Funeral Home, 500 N. 8th St., Mount Horeb, Wis., is serving the family. The family would like to thank Ernie's support system, including family, friends, doctors and nurses, UW Transplant Unit, and Mount Horeb EMS.

Mary Lou Wand

1944-2016

Mary Lou Wand, age 72 of Shullsburg WI passed away peacefully surrounded by her family on Monday, September 12, 2016 at Memorial Hospital of Lafayette County in Darlington, WI. She was born on March 1, 1944 in Shullsburg the daughter of Leroy and Alice (Fisher) Solberg. Mary Lou graduated from Shullsburg High school in 1962. She married the love of her life Robert J. Wand of Gratiot, WI on August 12, 1971 in Monticello, IA. Mary Lou was a lifelong resident of Shullsburg. She began her career at Don Q Inn in Dodgeville, WI and enjoyed many years working and managing at the Wheel In Restaurant and Lounge and Shullsburg Veterinary Service.

Mary Lou is survived by her husband Bob at home; five children: Stacy Wand of Shullsburg, Lance (Brooke) Wand of Sun Prairie, WI, Sarah (Steve) Vosberg of Ridgeway, WI, Rachel (Kurt) Haney of Edgerton, WI, and Gabe (Marcus) Wand of Platteville, WI; seven grandchildren: Noah, Alex, and Sydnee Wand, Kellen Wand, Sawyer and Cooper Vosberg, and Gracie Lou Haney; five brothers: Steve Solberg and Larry (Pam) Solberg both of Belvidere, IL, Bruce (Cindy) Solberg of Monroe, WI, Nick (Julie) Solberg of Dodgeville, WI, and Tim (Jean) Solberg of Ridgeway; and many nieces and nephews who were all very special to her. She was preceded in death by her parents; three sisters-in-law: Maryon Wand, Millie Solberg, and Gloria Wand; and two brothers-in-law: George Wand and Andy Waelti.

Mary Lou was a member of St. Matthew's Catholic Church in Shullsburg. She would often say, "My greatest accomplishments in life are my five awesome children who gave me the best grandchildren." Her greatest pleasures came while attending her grandchildren's sporting events and other extracurricular activities and spending time with her grandchildren and family creating memories that will last a lifetime, especially their trips to South Dakota. Mary Lou cherished the time she spent with friends traveling to Dubuque. She will be sadly missed and fondly remembered by her family and friends.

Online condolences may be expressed to the family at www.ericksonfuneralhome.com. In lieu of flowers, a memorial fund has been established in Mary Lou's name.
