Summer 2012

Message from the President

There's so much to write, and so little room... for it's hard to believe it's already August and we are not quite half way through with our racing season. Our race meets have been challenged first by rain, then by heat, and with the loss of racing in Monroe, it has been a little bit of a challenge so far this season. However, we are approaching the heart and soul of our circuit, with 4 jam-packed weeks of racing, beginning in Weyauwega on August 26th. I hope everyone can come race and help us celebrate winning the USTA Blue Ribbon Fair Award. Jessica Schroeder from the USTA will be on hand to present the award. Oh, and don't forget The WHHA Annual Picnic hosted by Donna Magee!

On a positive note, we have had some great racing moments so far in 2012. A big congratulation goes out to Eric DeLong for not only making his first drive, but also making it a winning one! (Sorry Ben).

Rice Lake saw what I believe is the richest harness raced contested at a county fair in Wisconsin ... a $7,000 two year old Minnesota Bred Trot. Bud Epp and his team did a great job with the track and making sure it was ready for the high caliber racing! At Mineral Point, fans were treated to a father-son dead heat in the Free For All Trot. Gary Magee tried to steal the race after his son Mike made a break, but sons have the drive to beat their fathers and he came firing back. It was very cool to see by all!

Good Luck to all the remainder of the season!
Gabe

An Announcers Anniversary

~by Sara Weaver

My father, O.L. "Buck" Weaver, has been announcing horse races throughout the Midwest for 55 years. He announced his first race in July of 1957 in Seymour, WI. Recently, I asked him to tell me about his life in Seymour, and how he came to announce the races there.

Les, or Lester, as he was known back then, moved to Seymour in 1951, to teach high school social studies. He taught and coached there for ten years before moving on to other pursuits. While in Seymour, he rented a room from Mrs. Shepherd, whose distant relative, Marion, served as speed superintendent in Seymour for a number of years. Although my father does not remember with certainty when friends and racing fans began to call him Buck, he knows it came about after his first announcing job.

When he had nothing else to do, Dad used to hang out in the tack room at the Seymour fairgrounds. He became friends with Marion Shepherd and Stew Bodine, who was the presiding judge. Periodically, Dad would call mythical horse races in the tack room. (When I teased him about his, he reminded me that as a little girl, I used to run laps around our circular driveway, calling horse races between "Sticky Glue" and "Pacing Pauline." Point taken!)

By 1957, Wayne Jensen had replaced Marion Shepherd as superintendent of speed. That summer, Ralph Davis, who had been the announcer at Seymour, had a disagreement with the fair over payment on a rainout. Wayne Jensen offered Dad the job. When asked to assess his performance that first day, my father replied, "Good enough to get rehired the next year."

Dad remembers average sized fields of horses and a decent crowd in the grandstand. He also remembers some of the performers. Hugh and Elwood Magee raced that day. Their horse, Mr. Red Hunter, eventually won 99 races in Wisconsin. Bob Linskins, John Brick, Bob Van Schyndel, and Don Vercuteren also competed. Roy Gettman raced Warren Heberling, a decent fair pacer. Gettman and his wife spent winters in a veteran's home, but during the summer months lived in tack rooms. John Hussin raced that day as well. Interestingly, his blanket rack now hangs in our horse trailer, purchased at an auction by my brother, Wayne.

When asked the origin of some of his catch phrases, Dad cited Stan Bergstein in Chicago and Perry O'Brien. Perry announced races in Elkhorn, Monroe, Belvidere, and Woodstock, among other places.

Dad also remembers some of officials he worked with at Seymour. As mentioned, Stew Bodine was the judge. Hermie Husman was the clerk for racing, and Smiley Nikodem served as chief timer. Recently, my father began making a list of all the presiding judges with whom he's worked. There are close to 50 names on the list and just as many stories to accompany them, but we will save that for a later issue.

Jack Kissinger was the horseshoer at Seymour. Even though he was from Seymour, he shod many horse in the Green Bay and DePere areas. In addition, he made shoes from hoof patterns sent to him in the mail. When he was finished, he would mail back the completed shoes.

During the summer of 1957, my father also announced his first horse race in Illinois. Charlie Haight, who was scheduled to announce at Aledo, was killed by a train. Dad was asked to replace him.

Happy Anniversary, Dad!
